FROM THE CHIEF PATRON'S DESK

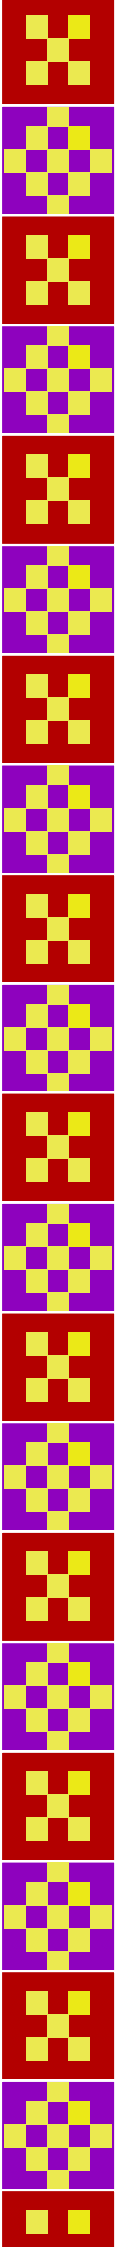

To bring out a news letter in its institutional life and forty years of academic journey speaks volumes of its own saga it is going to create. Definitely to publish "The KVC News Letter" was a dream that came true today. Apart from giving solid platform for creativity and critical thinking, it will document everything that happens in its life-pedagogical, cultural, philosophical, extra curricular, infrastructural and many more.

It gives me immense pleasure that the college's illustrious Alumnus Sj. Arvind Agrawal, IAS, Secretary-cum-Commissioner DHE, Govt of Odisha will launch it virtually.

(Chief Patron-cum-Principal)

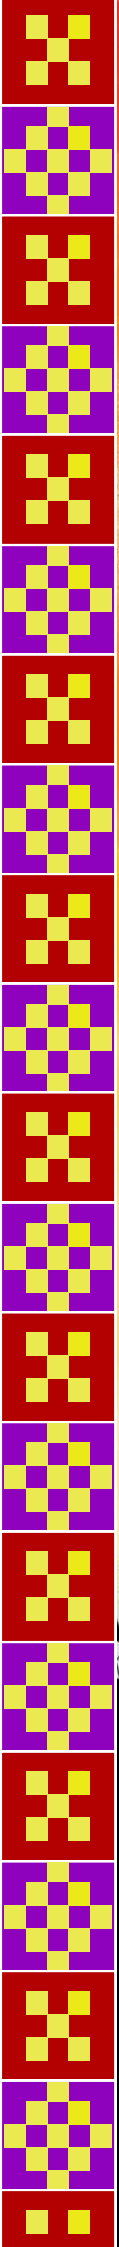

EDITORIAL

The K.V.C News Letter is more than a communication tool; it is a powerful catalyst for change, designed to inform, inspire, and engage our students, Teachers and the wider community. In the heart of Kantabanji, K.V College stands as a beacon of hope and opportunity, particularly for students from disadvantaged backgrounds in one of Odisha's most underserved regions. Here, education becomes a transformative force, bridging gaps and fostering human resource development, despite the challenges of high dropout rates.

This newsletter serves as a vital link, connecting the aspirations of our students with the broader mission and vision of societal development. It is our invitation to the community to actively participate in shaping the future, to engage with the issues that matter, and to support a vision of education that transcends the classroom. By raising awareness and encouraging involvement, we aim to cultivate a spirit of empowerment, where each student has the tools to contribute meaningfully to the community.

As we embark on this journey of academic and social growth, let the K.V.C News Letter be the voice and beacon that brings us closer to a future where education and social responsibility for sustainable development to achieve cleaner and greener earth.
